

Babies learn language from the day they are born.

Talk, play, sing and read together.

- The interactions you have with your baby helps them learn
- The more you communicate with your child, the more their language develops
- Make everyday moments language rich

(306) 825-5911

www.earlyyearsmattermost.ca